Death of Miss Florence Dickinson. On August 2nd our community was saddened by the sudden and unlooked for the week. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith, death of Florence Dickinson. She had been out of health for the past year and since the death of her sister, Mrs. Luella Creaser, one year ago, had spent the time at home. For the past three months her decline has been very rapid, though she was sick in bed only about ten days. She was born in this place 26 years ago this month and had spent all of her days with us, being away only a few weeks at a time. She was graduated at St. Johnsoury Academy in the class of 1904, and had taught several terms of school. No one knew her but to love her, and we can truly say, that in her going away from us, it touches us all, young and old alike. She had a most aimable disposition, always pleasant and agreeable to We shall miss her everywhere-her all. laugh, her smile, her pleasant words. The funeral was held in the chapel where all had heard her sing so many times for she had a beautiful voice that could always be heard. The profusion of beautiful flowers and everything that loving hands and hearts could do showed in part our feelings and sympathy. She left to mourn her loss a father and
